Code of Behaviour 2023

Code of Behaviour

The aim of our Code of Behaviour is to:

- Promote the efficient operation of the school.
- Foster and encourage respect, obedience and courtesy throughout the school.
- Lead the children towards good behaviour patterns, based on consideration and tolerance of all.
- Nurture a happy Christian ethos in the school.
- Create an ordered and orderly environment.
- Enable each child to live a full and happy life as a child.

Principles of our Code of Behaviour:

Scoil Phroinsias Naofa is under the Patronage of the Diocese of Meath and its characteristic spirit is a reflection of the ethos of the Church, incorporating a balance of faith and culture.

We at Scoil Phroinsias Naofa aim to provide a safe, caring, happy and disciplined environment, where children's self-esteem, self-confidence, initiative and innovation can be nurtured within an atmosphere of mutual respect and appreciation. Our School's Code of Discipline plays a vital part in developing this ethos within the school.

Our children's chances of success and happiness in life, here and hereafter, depend considerably upon their ability to make responsible choices. To assist in fostering maturity in our pupils, a whole-school approach to discipline is necessary.

The policy is based on the principles of consideration and respect for self, each other, the school and its environment. A central concept is the basic fact that no child HAS to misbehave. When anyone does misbehave, then he or she is making a positive choice to do so. Children can always choose to "behave".

Self-discipline is encouraged by ensuring the children are trained in good behaviour patterns, based on respect, consideration and tolerance towards all. This enables them to feel secure and make progress in all aspects of their development.

The school recognises the variety of differences that exist between children and the need to tolerate these differences. Every effort will be made to ensure that the Code of Discipline is implemented in a reasonable, fair and consistent manner. It is agreed that a high standard of behaviour requires a strong sense of community within the school and a high level of cooperation among staff and between staff, parents and pupils.

While every effort will be made to encourage and praise good behaviour, it is accepted that there is a need for sanctions to register disapproval of unacceptable behaviour. Any behaviour that interferes with the rights of others to learn and to feel safe is unacceptable.
